Columbia University Press, United States, 1997. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New.. 216 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. It merely requires a complete ignorance of both life and literature ) to sentimentality ( One must have a heart of stone to read the death of Little Nell without laughing ). This book also contains selections from personal letters - letters filled with poignant remarks on his life and on the human condition. Karl Beckson has selected more than 1,000 quotations on subjects from absinthe to Zola. With its comprehensive citation of source material, I Can Resist Everything Except Temptation is not only a boon to writers, but a lovingly crafted portrait of one of history...
