By Mike Meagher, Xploreit Maps

Fountain Software and Publications Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Wild Atlantic Way Route Atlas: Ireland's Journey West: 2015, Mike Meagher, Xploreit Maps, The Wild Atlantic Way is the world's longest defined coastal route. It includes Ireland's most southerly point, Mizen Head in Cork, and its most northerly one, Malin Head in Donegal. All along the way you will find a myriad of spectacular discovery points with incredible scenic views. This atlas splits up the route into 30 Fold-Out maps which are detailed yet easy to read. The coastal roads are classified so that you are instantly aware of any narrow sections and you can also see where the really scenic stretches are located. Each section is drivable in one day or less and there are useful distance charts for towns and villages to help you plan your journey. All of the official Discovery Points are clearly shown including the 15 iconic Signature Points. Over 40 different categories of visitor information are shown to help you locate numerous hidden gems and well-known attractions. A variety of coastal and forest walks in the vicinity of the route are detailed. Main Features: 30 Fold-Out road maps showing the route and road...
