Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Kathleen Hayson thinks her biggest problem is her mother. The only runner up-her mouth. With a wit sharper than her mother s perfectly manicured nails, her clever remarks create more problems than they solve. But it s not her clever remarks landing her knee-deep in trouble. This time, Josh Colby is to blame. Kathleen s former childhood friend has become the school s most stuck up jerk. Before, she d have told him to piss off and write his own stupid letter to the town slut/minister s daughter. Now Kathleen s escalating problems at home force her to reevaluate how flexible her principles are. She agrees to write the controversial letter Josh has requested. Enter Rigel, a smartass magical creature who invades her room one night, promises he has come to help her. When a boy Kathleen hates turns up dead and her mother goes missing, the letter becomes a key piece of police evidence - implicating Kathleen. As she fights her way out of a web of lies, the trust she has in those closest to her shatters. In the end, she s pushed to a terrible choice: who lives, and who else dies.
