While I realize that hiring top-level technical experts to work in Government is difficult, given the lure of Silicon Valley, these positions need to be filled as quickly as possible, and that is what I have always argued in the past, and I want to make a comment on that this morning. Instead of putting a lid on technology we need to fully fund and fully support our law enforcement agencies so they are abreast of or half a step ahead and working with industry in the technology so they can get their job done, so we need a lot of work, and I am going to put the rest of my statement in here, because I do want to hear from witnesses this morning. The prepared statement of Senator Burns follows: Prepared Statement of Hon. Conrad Burns, U. S. Senator from Montana I would like to welcome everyone to todays hearing, which is the first in a series of hearings this Subcommittee will be holding on the critical issues of Internet security and privacy facing our nation. Todays hearing will focus on the unprecedented and apparently coordinated recent series of hacker attacks which caused some of the most popular websites on the Internet to go dark. The list of sites that were brought down included such Internet mainstays as Amazon. com, eBay, cnn. com, e-Trade and Yahoo. These attacks are technically called distributed denial of service attacks which in plain English is like a telephone system getting overwhelmed by more calls than it can handle. It appears the hackers planned...
