To-day is the anniversary of our national deliverance from a most fearful wickedness, and our church has appointed a service of thanksgiving for it. Well does it become any nation to be thankful for deliverance from the darkness, and idolatry, and soul-slavery, of popery - and well does it become a nation, so delivered, to be thankful for the farther deliverance from the bloody machinations of the enemies of God and his Christ. To-day, I trust, our watchmen, our minister-watchmen, will take up the note from our Prayer-book, and many a spirit-awakening blast will be sent forth from the trumpet of protestantism, and the dormant energies of many a sleeping protestant be called into life, and many a son of our protestant church be roused to put on the whole armour of God to withstand in the evil day which is coming, until the sea...
