Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Biennial Report of the Commissioner of the Land Office of Maryland: From October 1, 1901, to September 30, 1903 By the acts of 1780 and 1781, all the lands belonging to British subjects were confiscated to the use of the State, and with these lands Maryland rewarded the officers and soldiers who faithfully served in the revolution in the Maryland Line. The Act of 1781 created a Land Office for the Western Shore, and another for the Eastern Shore, and placed each of them under the direction and care of a Register. In 1841 these two offices were consolidated, and the present Land Office was established at Annapolis. By the Constitution of 1851, the Commissioner of the Land Office was created and directed to perform the duties formerly discharged by the Chancellor, Register and Examiner-General, and to act as Judge in caveat cases. In 1853 the General Assembly passed an Act declaring the Court of the Commissioner of the Land Office to be a Court of Record. The Act of 1862 and the Constitution of...
