Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Ancestry of Nathan Dane Dodge and of His Wife Sarah (Shepherd) Dodge: With Notes This book is published by the children of Nathan Dane and Sarah (Shepherd) Dodge, and contains a record of their lineal ancestry as far back, usually, as the Puritan immigration, together with a brief notice of some of the more interesting among the collateral relatives. It is the genealogy of an average New England family, descended, without exception so far as is known, from the Puritans, whose advent on these shores has gone far to make New England's name prominent in the civilization of the world. We are like the majority, in that our forefathers have generally been earnest, humble, hard-working men; our foremothers, tender and true women, striving to do their duty according to the light shown them: but we are no less like the majority, in counting among our kinsmen, individuals of note - such as the world is glad to remember - like stars shining through the night of oblivion, which, soon or late, settles down on...
