Brand New Book  Print on Demand . FULLY REVISED JANUARY 2016  Facing extinction, the last remaining drug cartel in Colombia embark on a desperate bid to break a Royal Naval blockade and re-open their smuggling routes in the Caribbean. Simon Hawkins (ex-military policeman turned private detective) teams up with customs agent, Samantha Kingsley to solve a murder and save a kidnapped boy. But as he unravels the mystery, he uncovers the horrific plan. With thousands of lives hanging by a thread, and hunted by deadly assassins, Hawk and Samantha embark on a dangerous quest to rescue the boy and destroy the poison. The adventure takes them deep into the Amazon jungle and along paths into that have lain hidden for 500 years. Their goal - the legendary Inca city of El Dorado. With time against him and the killers hot on his heels, Hawk uses all his skill and cunning to survive. IF HE FAILS, THOUSANDS WILL DIE! What a fantastic first novel, truly a gripping read - I couldn't put it down Complete with stunning...
