Many of us put value in the things that we own, and while this is only understandable, too much value put on things can be a dangerous thing to hold. Most of us spend our lives giving up things and letting go of opportunities just so we could work and earn to buy things and possessions. A nice house with a beautiful garden, a stylish car, the latest clothes and accessories, high-tech gadgets and electronics, or even gourmet dishes and trips around the world are just some of the things that people put value on. While all of these are good and well to have, the problem is when people give up what they should value more just to get these so-called luxuries and dreams. Those who have jobs and careers spend most of their time working and away...
